

2024 International Drifting Cup FAQ

What format is being run this year?

2024 sees the return of our world famous pool format, think World Cup Football, All the door banging action with no boring bits!

Are OMT's restricted?

Sure are, no OMT's through the pool rounds, win loose or draw. Then in the Great 8 and beyond, if a battle can't be split the first time it is sudden death OMT!

How many cars will compete this year?

24 Cars and Drivers will be selected to compete based on interesting car builds, show factor and reach, and of course driver ability. There will be 2 reserves.

Who is driving and can my mate drive too?

The International Drifting Cup is an invite only event and it is non-transferable. If you didn't make the cut, then grab a ticket and watch all the action from Cellarbrations Drift Hill

When do expressions of interest open?

The International Drifting Cup is an invite only event and not open to expressions of interest. However, if you think we might have missed something that you do, please email us.

Can I get extra tickets?

You can buy discounted tickets but they must be done early, more information will be sent after your registration.

Can I take Passengers?

Motorsports Australia has strict passenger ride rules and only approved cars can take passengers, contact us for more details when you register.

Where can I get more info?

We strongly suggest that you read the International Drifting Cup regulations which can be found in the competitors section of the World Time Attack Challenge Website, if you still have questions, email Dan Mackie on drift@worldtimeattack.com

What do I need to do now?

Fill out your entry and registration form ASAP so you don't miss out on your spot!